

Sam Onche

Sam Onche is a multidisciplinary Nigerian artist. An illustrator/painter now based in the United States, Sam studied studio art at Colby College with a focus in oil painting and uses the digital and oil medium to create illustrations for posters, prints, book covers and album covers. He uses Black art as a voice to speak on issues, expectations as well as representation of Black people in our world today. Themes that can be seen in his work are fashion, music, culture and afrofuturism.
